TUESDAY..... APRIL 80, 1878 We rise to inform the Wytheville Enter prise that we did not copy Judge Staples's opinion from the Staunton Virginian. We took it from the Richmond Dispatch, and printed it just as & appeared in that most excellent paper. - Salem Register. It is now in order for our contemporary of the Richmond Dispatch, which we agree is a most excellent paper, to explain how it happened, in publishing the opinion, to silence the voice of Judge Staples in regard to a subject upon which he expressly said he wanted it to have "no uncertain sound "-viz., the inviolability of obligations, both public and private. - Wytheville Enterprise.

That's done, and Judge Staples's certain tones have been trumpeted as loudly as was practicable. - Dispatch.
